

Student Identification Cards Policy

Section 1 - Purpose and Objectives

(1) This Policy sets out the obligations of students in regard to student identification cards. The student identification card is a multi-use card that performs many functions and impacts upon a wide range of stakeholders.

Section 2 - Definitions, Terms, Acronyms

Term	Definition
ID Card	Student Identification Card
Full-time Enrolment	Being enrolled in 6 units or more per semester.

Section 3 - Policy Scope/Coverage

(2) This Policy covers all students enrolled at The University of Queensland.

Section 4 - Policy Statement

(3) The University will issue an ID card, containing a photographic image, free of charge to all its enrolled students at the commencement of their program. The ID card must be produced on request and remains the property of The University of Queensland.

(4) The ID card provides proof of enrolment and will be used as identification for purposes that may include admission, examinations, library borrowing privileges, controlled access to secured areas and transport concessions.

Status and Details

Status	Current
Effective Date	16th June 2011
Review Date	31st December 2024
Approval Authority	Provost and Senior Vice-President
Approval Date	16th June 2011
Expiry Date	Not Applicable
Policy Owner	Kathryn Blyth Director, Academic Services Division and Academic Registrar
Enquiries Contact	Academic Services Division