

Appointment Relocation Assistance Procedure

Section 1 - Purpose and Scope

- (1) The University of Queensland (UQ) provides eligible appointees with financial assistance to meet some expenses incurred where they are required to relocate to work at UQ.
- (2) An “eligible appointee” can be a new UQ staff member or an existing UQ staff member appointed to a new role that requires them to relocate their residence.
- (3) This Procedure outlines the process and requirements for relocation assistance and supports the Recruitment, Selection and Appointment Policy and related procedures. This Procedure should be read in conjunction with UQ’s FBT Guide.

Section 2 - Process and Key Controls

- (4) Eligible appointees may be offered relocation assistance with the approval of the Authorised Officer.
- (5) Authorised Officers are responsible for negotiating the amount with the eligible appointee, in consultation with the Head of the Organisational Unit, prior to making the offer.
- (6) The type and/or maximum amount of relocation assistance must be negotiated between the Authorised Officer and new appointee and confirmed in writing in the Offer of Appointment.
- (7) A request to increase the amount of relocation assistance must be specified in writing and agreed to by the Authorised Officer prior to the additional relocation expenditure being incurred.
- (8) Staff members who receive relocation assistance and resign within the first two years of employment may be required to repay all or a pro-rata of the relocation assistance to UQ as determined by a Human Resources Division representative.

Section 3 - Key Requirements

Eligibility

- (9) An eligible appointee must be required to relocate their residence more than 50 kilometres to take up the new appointment at the relevant UQ campus.
- (10) An appointee is eligible for relocation assistance:
- a. for a continuing, probationary or fixed-term Academic appointment; or
 - b. for a continuing or fixed-term Professional appointment (HEW Level 8 and above); and
 - c. when the appointment is for a minimum of two years.
- (11) Tutorial Fellows are entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses for the appointee only.

(12) Tutorial Assistants are not entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses.

(13) An appointee to an Academic position of less than 2 years, or to a Research position, or to a Professional HEW 1 to 7 position, may apply to the Authorised Officer for relocation assistance.

². Eligible Relocation expenses are outlined in the UQ FBT Guide under section 10.2 'Relocation expense'.

³. If relocation of residence is involved and/or employee is required to travel more than 50 kilometres to reach the place of employment, reimbursement equivalent to 5 days' salary will be paid to cover any incidental or stopover expenses. This is considered as assessable income and is subject to Australian income tax.

Payment of Relocation Expenses

(15) UQ uses a broker to manage all aspects of an appointee's physical relocation, both domestically and internationally. UQ's relocation broker coordinates the end-to-end relocation process directly with the appointee in line with their agreed relocation allowance and this Procedure, excluding immigration assistance.

(16) To minimise the appointee being out of pocket for relocation expenses, Human Resources Division arranges payment directly with UQ's relocation broker and assigns the cost to the applicable Organisation Unit. Any relocation expenses above the approved limit set out in the Offer of Appointment will be for the appointee's personal account, and UQ's broker will invoice the appointee directly for the difference.

(17) UQ uses a separate immigration service provider for all UQ sponsored visa applications. If an appointee chooses to use part of their relocation allowance towards visa costs, any remaining balance of the relocation allowance can be used for other relocation expenses managed through UQ's relocation broker. Any visa costs above the approved limit set out in the Offer of Appointment will be for the appointee's personal account, and UQ's immigration service provider will provide payment instructions to the appointee directly for the difference.

Broker Fees

(18) Broker fees charged by UQ's relocation broker will be incurred by the Organisational Unit. A list of services and current broker fees can be provided by the Human Resources Division.

Repayment of Relocation Expenses

(19) Appointees who receive relocation assistance and voluntarily resign within the first two years of employment at UQ, may be required to repay UQ all or a pro-rata of the relocation assistance provided.
