

Conflict of Interest for Members of Staff Procedure Section 1 - Purpose and Scope

Scope

- (2) This Procedure applies to all University staff (including contractors).

All sources of financial and in-kind support for a research output must be disclosed in the acknowledgements of the research output in accordance with the UQ Authorship Procedure.
- (5) Where a conflict relates to the commercialisation of research, this Procedure must be read in conjunction with the Disclosure of Interests relating to Commercialisation Procedure.
- (6) This Procedure does not apply to Senate Members. The Conflict of Interest and Disclosure Procedure for Members of Senate provides the process for Senate Members to disclose and manage a conflict of interest.

Section 2 - Process and Key Controls

- (7) All staff must assess their private and personal interests and identify whether those interests may conflict with their official UQ duties and responsibilities.
- (8) All staff are required to disclose their conflicts of interest and suggest management plans for approval using the online disclosure tool.
- (9) Local Managers review conflict of interest management plans to ensure the efficient and effective management of the conflict of interest.
- (10) Conflict of interest management plans are approved by the relevant approval authority.
  - a. Once a staff member discloses a conflict of interest and suggests a management plan using the online disclosure tool, their Local Manager will review the management plan and either request further information or changes to be made by the staff member, or recommend the management plan be approved or not by the Senior Leader.
  - b. Senior Leaders will review the management plan and either request further information or that changes are made by the staff member before they approve the plan or not.

Section 3 - Principles and Key Requirements

- (11) A conflict of interest may include circumstances involving a staff member's:
  - a. competing external interest or obligation;
  - b. personal financial interest;
  - c. personal relationships; or
  - d. receipt of personal benefits.
- (12) When considering whether a conflict of interest exists, staff should consider:
  - a. whether the interest, relationship or obligation is consistent with community values, standards and behaviours, and the principles outlined in the University's Staff Code of Conduct Policy;
  - b. how the interest, relationship or obligation might be viewed or perceived by other people; and
  - c. whether the interest, relationship or obligation may compromise their ability to exercise impartial leadership, management or judgment.
- (13) Staff should also alert supervisors to conflicts of interest held by other staff where they have a reasonable belief the conflict of interest has not previously been disclosed.

Disclosing a Conflict of Interest

- (14) When a staff member identifies a conflict of interest, they must disclose the conflict using the online disclosure tool and submit it to their Supervisor.
- (15) Where a conflict of interest arises during a meeting, the staff member must verbally disclose it and have it formally noted (e.g. in minutes of the meeting).
- (16) Where a Supervisor becomes aware of a potential conflict of interest that has not been disclosed by a member of their staff, they should discuss the matter with the staff member and ensure the conflict is disclosed and managed appropriately using the online disclosure tool.
- (17) Where circumstances affecting an existing or previously disclosed conflict of interest change, the staff member must amend the disclosure and submit a revised disclosure and management plan using the online disclosure tool for approval.

Managing a Conflict of Interest

- (18) When a staff member has identified and disclosed a conflict of interest, they must develop a plan with their Supervisor to resolve or manage the conflict. A conflict of interest management plan includes:
  - a. the nature of the staff member's private interest;
  - b. the interests of the University with which the staff member's private interest conflicts;
  - c. the likelihood of the interests conflicting;
  - d. an outline of risk management strategies to be implemented; and
  - e. the recommended measures to be taken.
- (19) Once a conflict of interest management plan has been developed, it must be approved by the relevant Senior Leader using the online disclosure tool.

(20) The management plan should be reviewed annually or when circumstances change involving the staff member's conflict. The staff member and their supervisor are responsible for ensuring that the management plan remains appropriate.
