Teaching and Learning Roles, Responsibilities and Governance Guideline

Section 1 - Purpose and Scope

(1) The purpose of this Guideline is to:

   a. provide more detailed guidance for course coordinators, academic advisors, and School Teaching and Learning Committees, and
   b. describe other teaching and learning roles that may be useful for faculties, schools, and coordinating units.

(2) This Guideline supplements the Teaching and Learning Roles, Responsibilities and Governance Policy and Procedure.

Section 2 - Guidance

Part A - Coordinating Unit or School Teaching and Learning Committee

(3) Teaching and Learning Committees (TLCs) are responsible for promoting excellence in teaching and enhancing and assuring the quality of teaching and learning in coordinating units and schools. This includes:

   a. Leadership
      i. Provide leadership and support to staff to improve teaching effectiveness, student learning, and student experience in the context of University policy and strategic direction.
      ii. Lead, support, and promote the adoption of best practice and innovation in curriculum design, teaching, and assessment.
      iii. Identify and provide evidence-based advice on emerging teaching and learning issues and opportunities of relevance.
      iv. Develop and implement teaching and learning strategic objectives in alignment with faculty and University strategic objectives.
      v. Encourage, recognise and reward high quality teaching and learning.
      vi. Promote and publicise teaching and learning achievements, awards, fellowships, initiatives, and developments within the organising unit or school, University, and wider communities.
   b. Quality Assurance
      i. Ensure teaching and learning practices align with UQ policies and procedures.
      ii. Identify areas that could be strengthened (e.g., poorly performing courses) and provide appropriate support for the purposes of improvement.
      iii. Monitor course failure rates and provide appropriate support to outliers if appropriate.
      iv. Respond as appropriate to information from Integrity Officers regarding trends in misconduct.
      v. Prepare for program, shorter form credential, coordinating unit or school reviews, and accreditation where appropriate.

    vi. Assist with the Annual Quality Assessment (AQA) and Academic Program Review (APR) processes.

    vii. Implement initiatives for students to provide input and feedback.

c. Management

    i. Oversee major changes to shorter form credentials, courses, plans, fields of study, and programs.

    ii. Ensure effective communication between academic and professional staff in teaching and learning.

    iii. Ensure effective communication between coordinating unity or school, faculty, and central committees/offices around teaching, learning and student experience.
