

Diversity, Equity and Inclusive Behaviours Policy

Section 1 - Purpose and Scope

Purpose

(1) The University of Queensland (UQ or the University) is committed to creating a thriving, diverse community where all staff, students and members of the UQ Community feel welcome, included and safe.

(2) The purpose of this Policy is to:

- a. Outline the key principles underpinning UQ's approach to diversity, equity and inclusion;
- b. Outline mechanisms for the prevention of Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying at UQ;
- c. Identify accountability for applying these principles; and
- d. Outline the areas of focus for UQ that inform strategies, plans, programs and initiatives related to diversity, equity and inclusion.

Scope

(3) This Policy applies to all members of the UQ Community, the UQ Senate, and contractors at the University, in relation to UQ Related Conduct.

(4) This Policy should be read and applied in conjunction with the relevant legislation and relevant procedures that underpin the Policy, as outlined in the 'Legislative Framework' in the Appendix and the Associated Information tab.

Section 2 - Principles and Key Requirements

(5) Diversity, equity and inclusion are values which are core to UQ's strategic objectives. UQ aims to be a respectful institution that highly values diversity, equity and inclusion, so that all members of the UQ Community can reach their full potential.

(6) A diverse staff and student population significantly enriches UQ's teaching, research, learning and professional capability across local, national and international networks and communities. Attracting and retaining diverse talent enables UQ to be innovative and to compete in the global marketplace as both an employer of choice and preferred study destination.

Principles

(7) In addition to the Senate-endorsed Principles for the Protection of Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom (see Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom Policy), all members of the UQ Community are expected to abide by UQ's Values. The following principles underpin diversity, equity and inclusion efforts within UQ:

 The UQ Community is responsible for upholding an inclusive and respectful study and work environment, free from bullying, harassment and discrimination, in accordance with State and Commonwealth legislation, the Higher Education Standards Framework and other relevant policies and procedures.

- b. Staff and students are expected to exemplify behaviours, including social responsibility, ethical leadership, and respectful and inclusive behaviours. UQ is committed to identifying and removing any systematic or structural barriers or limitations to equitable access, full participation and inclusion in education and employment.
- c. UQ is committed to developing and maintaining an environment that is respectful, inclusive, and free from discriminating, harassing and bullying behaviours.
- d. UQ will commit to activities which meet the University's Strategic objectives to support and retain a diverse and inclusive community of high achieving staff and students, including monitoring, evaluating and reporting on the impact of diversity, equity and inclusion interventions undertaken by UQ.

Key Requirements

(8) The Workplace Diversity and Inclusion Team within Human Resources Division is the primary coordination point for staff-focused diversity, equity and inclusion strategy and efforts.

(9) The Student Services Directorate within Student Affairs Division is the coordination point for student-focused diversity, equity and inclusion strategy and activity.

(10) UQ has a responsibility to meet the applicable legislative requirements which underpin the principles outlined in this Policy.

Areas of Focus

(11) UQ identifies specific areas of focus that inform strategies, plans, programs and initiatives related to diversity, equity and inclusion. These areas of focus include:

- a. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples;
- b. People with disability;
- c. People with cultural and linguistic diversities;
- d. People with gender, sex and sexual diversities;
- e. The under-representation of women in senior positions;
- f. Groups/disciplines where one gender is over-represented within a cohort;
- g. People with caring responsibilities;
- h. People from low socio-economic backgrounds;
- i. Students from rural and remote areas; and
- j. Intersectionality, which addresses the complex impact of multiple overlapping/intersecting forms of Discrimination (such as racism, sexism) on the experiences of marginalised individuals or groups.

Prevention of Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying

(12) UQ strictly prohibits all forms of unlawful Discrimination, Harassment, Bullying, vilification and Victimisation behaviours, in accordance with State and Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation, the Staff Code of Conduct Policy and Student Code of Conduct Policy, the University of Queensland Enterprise Agreement, UQ's Principles for the Protection of Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom (in the Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom Policy), and other relevant policies and procedures. Breaches of this Policy may be subject to investigation in accordance with University policies and procedures.

(13) UQ undertakes educative and preventative processes within the UQ Community to develop awareness of issues related to Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying, and provides mechanisms to deal with complaints about such behaviours.

(14) UQ offers multiple reporting and support options to Staff and Students who experience or witness behaviours that
