

Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence Prevention and Response Policy

Section 1 - Purpose and Scope

(1) The University of Queensland (UQ or the University) is committed to promoting and fostering a University environment that is safe, respectful and free from all forms of Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence. Subject to what follows, this Policy outlines the principles and key requirements governing UQ's approach to preventing, addressing and responding to:

- a. Sexual Misconduct, which is unwelcome behaviour of a sexual nature without Consent and includes behaviour that could amount to a Sexual Offence and/or Sexual Harassment; and
- b. Gender-based Violence, which is any form of physical or non-physical violence, harassment, abuse or threats, based on gender, that results in, or is likely to result in, harm, coercion, control, fear or deprivation of liberty or autonomy.

(2) This Policy is to be read in conjunction with the Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence Prevention and Response for Students Procedure (Students Procedure), the Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence Prevention and Response for Staff Procedure (Staff Procedure), and the Acceptable Behaviour towards Students Procedure (together, the Procedures).

(3) UQ is committed to providing Support to Students, Staff, Contractors and Third Parties who have experienced, witnessed or otherwise been exposed to Sexual Misconduct or Gender-based Violence.

(4) This Policy applies to all members of the UQ Community, Affiliated Organisations and Associated Entities. Together with the Procedures, this guides our intent to promote and foster an environment where Students, Staff, Contractors and Third Parties are supported to make Disclosures and Formal Reports and are offered support through Trauma-Informed and Person-Centred approaches.

(5) This Policy and the Procedures have been designed to support the prevention of Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence, effective responses to Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence, Disclosers achieving their educational outcomes, and the physical and psychological safety and wellbeing of Students, Staff and Contractors.

(6) This Policy and the Procedures do not govern disciplinary processes in relation to Students, Staff and Contractors who are alleged to have engaged in Sexual Misconduct or Gender-based Violence. Those processes are governed by the University's Disciplinary Framework. This Policy and the Procedures deal with UQ's prevention of and response to Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence outside the Disciplinary Framework.

(7) Further information about the factors that drive and contribute to Gender-based Violence, including factors particularly relevant to UQ, is available to be accessed through the UQ Policy and Procedure Library > Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence Prevention and Response Policy (this Policy) > Associated Information tab.

Section 2 - Principles and Key Requirements

(8) The following principles reflect UQ's commitment to preventing all forms of Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence, supporting Students, Staff, Contractors and Third Parties who are affected by Sexual Misconduct or Gender-based Violence, and responding appropriately and sensitively when Sexual Misconduct or Gender-based Violence occurs.

- a. All forms of Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence are unacceptable.
- b. UQ prohibits all forms of Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence, and requires all members of the UQ Community, Affiliated Organisations and Associated Entities to comply with this prohibition.
- c. UQ acknowledges that education and awareness are important aspects of prevention and is committed to educating Students, Leadership, Staff and Contractors to assist in the prevention of Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence in the UQ Community.
- d. All members of the UQ Community, Affiliated Organisations and Associated Entities are required to take all reasonable steps to maintain a safe and respectful environment at or related to UQ.
- e. Leadership, Staff and Contractors, particularly supervisors and managers, will be made aware of the responsibility they have in responding appropriately when they receive information regarding Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence, particularly taking account of Trauma-Informed and Person-Centred approaches.
- f. Procedures supporting this Policy are to be Trauma-Informed and Person-Centred.
- g. UQ acknowledges that Sexual Misconduct may include conduct which would also amount to a Sexual Offence if proven in a court exercising criminal jurisdiction. The University does not have jurisdiction to determine criminal responsibility and does not make findings in terms of criminal responsibility, including as to whether a Sexual Offence has occurred. However, the University can and will determine whether alleged Sexual Misconduct or Gender-based Violence amounts to 'general misconduct', 'misconduct' or 'serious misconduct' (as the case may be) pursuant to the Disciplinary Framework. UQ can and will take action in respect of breaches of its rules, policies and procedures pursuant to its Disciplinary Framework. UQ will cooperate with and, where provided for in the Procedures, report matters to the police or other external agencies.
- h. The safety, welfare and support of the Students, Leadership, Staff, Contractors and Third Parties is paramount. UQ recognises that any Sexual Misconduct or Gender-based Violence is likely to have an adverse impact on, and is committed to providing Support to Students, Leadership, Staff, Contractors and Third Parties.
- i. UQ will implement options for Support, Disclosures and Formal Reports that are simple, accessible and available through multiple avenues.
- j. UQ will bring sensitivity and timeliness when providing Support and responding to Disclosures and Formal Reports.
- k. Confidentiality and information privacy will be upheld where possible, in accordance with legislative requirements and UQ policies and procedures.
- l. UQ does not tolerate Victimisation.
- m. UQ recognises that Sexual Misconduct or Gender-based Violence may be experienced by all people regardless of their sexuality or gender identity.
- n. A Formal Report of Sexual Misconduct or Gender-based Violence may attract protections under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 (Qld) and UQ's Public Interest Disclosure Policy and Public Interest Disclosure Procedure.

Section 3 - Roles, Responsibilities and Accountabilities

(9) The Human Resources Division, Student Support and Wellbeing Services, Academic Services Division, and the Safer Communities Service coordinate UQ's provision of Support and carry out other matters as specified in this Policy and the Procedures.

(10) The Human Resources Division, Student Support and Wellbeing Services, and Academic Services Division are responsible for resourcing and supporting the work of the Safer Communities Service, and implementing this Policy and the Procedures, including providing Support and responding to Disclosures and Formal Reports.

(11) The Chief Operating Officer is responsible for:

- a. approving requests for extensions to the timeframe in clause 39 of the Staff Procedure, in clause 40 of the Students Procedure and clause 89 of the Student Integrity and Misconduct Procedure, but only where they are assessed as being required in the particular circumstances; and
- b. providing periodic reports to and obtaining periodic feedback from the Vice-Chancellor to confirm that the Vice-Chancellor is satisfied that extensions are only being permitted where required.

Section 4 - Monitoring, Review and Assurance

(12) The Human Resources Division, Student Support and Wellbeing Services, and Academic Services Division are responsible for ensuring that this Policy and the Procedures are reviewed routinely and in response to any concerns or issues raised by members of the UQ Community. Edits and updates can be made to the Procedures to ensure their ongoing relevance, effectiveness and compliance with law.

Section 5 - Recording and Reporting

Confidentiality and Privacy

(13) Information relating to offers of Support, Disclosures or Formal Reports will be:

- a. recorded and kept confidential by UQ, and only used by UQ to take action as described in the Policy and the Procedures, to de-identify the information for statistical reporting (as described further below) or otherwise to comply with the Policy and the Procedures or the law;
- b. kept separate from, and not linked to, the enrolment, employment or other engagement records of the Discloser, the Reporter, or any witness; and
- c. accessible by the person who provided the information if they wish to later use it for the purposes of making a Formal Report or report to the police or other external agency.

(14) UQ may use de-identified data relating to offers of Support, Disclosures or Formal Reports for the purposes of monitoring patterns of Sexual Misconduct and Gender-based Violence, and identifying any trends and risks to inform future prevention and education programs at UQ.

(15) Any personal information collected by UQ under the Procedures will be handled according to the Privacy Policy and Privacy Management Procedure.

(16) Staff and Contractors who have a role or responsibility under the Policy and the Staff and Students Procedures must keep confidential information relating to offers of Support, Disclosures or Formal Reports, except insofar as necessary to:

- a. take any action permitted by, or otherwise comply with, the Policy and the Staff and Students Procedures or the law;
- b. make a report to the police or other external agency in accordance with the Staff and Students Procedures;
- c. facilitate support from an immediate family member, or a staff or student representative, or to obtain medical or legal advice.

Reporting and Monitoring

(17) The Safer Communities Service will regularly report to the Chair of the Vice-Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Sexual Misconduct.

(18) The Safer Communities Service will collate data relating to the use of the Policy and the Procedures.

(19) The Safer Communities Service will work with the Human Resources Division, the Integrity Unit, the Academic Services Division, and Student Support and Wellbeing Services to ensure that relevant de-identified data is recorded and reported to the Vice-Chancellor and Human Resources Division, Student Support and Wellbeing Services, and Academic Services Division on a six monthly basis, including but not limited to:

- a. the number and types of offers of Support made and Disclosures received;
- b. the number and types of Formal Reports made;
- c. the number and types of matters reported to the police or other external agency, in accordance with "Reporting to the Police or other External Agency" clauses of the Staff and Students Procedures;
- d. whether further action was taken in response to Formal Reports, including the number referred for consideration pursuant to the Disciplinary Framework;
- e. the number of investigations conducted;
- f. time taken to respond to Disclosures and Formal Reports;
- g. any feedback provided by Disclosers, Respondents, Reporters, Third Parties and witnesses;
- h. a summary of any patterns that emerge from the monitoring conducted, including any recommendations for further improving UQ's relevant policies and procedures;
- i. any further statistics on which the University is required by law to report; and
- j. any further statistics the Vice-Chancellor and/or Senate considers necessary from time to time.
