

Staff Movement Policy

Section 1 - Purpose

Purpose

(1) The University of Queensland (UQ) encourages and supports staff movement within UQ, and between UQ and external organisations, to meet the strategic and operational requirements of UQ, and to provide valuable professional capability development to staff.

(2) Staff movement can enhance UQ's overall performance by:

- a. improving the transfer of information and ideas; and
- b. enhancing organisational relationships through increased understanding on the part of the staff involved.

(3) Staff secondment between UQ and another organisation may also enhance industry collaboration.

Scope

(4) This Policy applies to:

- a. all UQ staff responsible for organising and negotiating staff movement opportunities as detailed in the Staff Movement Procedure; and
- b. paid UQ academic and professional staff who participate in UQ internal or external to UQ staff movement opportunities.

Section 2 - Principles and Key Requirements

(5) UQ is committed to supporting and retaining high quality staff who are able to contribute to UQ's wider strategic objectives, and to providing developmental opportunities for staff through staff movement opportunities.

(6) Staff movement opportunities will support the principles outlined in the Diversity, Equity and Inclusive Behaviours Policy and associated procedures, and the relevant Enterprise Agreement provisions.

(7) Supervisors are to encourage and support staff in broadening their knowledge and skills through opportunities in line with the Staff Movement Procedure.

(8) The Human Resources Division (HR) will provide advice to UQ supervisors, UQ staff, and external organisations on staff movement options and requirements in accordance with this Policy and the Staff Movement Procedure.
